

HOUSE No. 4482

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, October 22, 2012.

The committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the Bill relative to injured on duty benefits for environmental police officers (House, No. 726, changed), reports recommending that the same ought to pass with an amendment substituting therefor the accompanying bill (House, No. 4482).

For the committee,

BRIAN S. DEMPSEY.

HOUSE No. 4482

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Twelve

An Act relative to injured on duty benefits for environmental police officers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 21A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended by inserting after section 10H the following section:-

3 Section 10I. (a) Whenever an environmental police officer of the office of law enforcement is 4 incapacitated for duty because of injuries sustained in the performance of duty without fault of 5 the officer, such officer shall be granted leave without loss of pay for the period of such 6 incapacity; provided however, that no such leave shall be granted for any period after such 7 officer has been retired or pensioned in accordance with law or for any period after a physician
8 designated by the director of law enforcement determines that such incapacity no longer exists.

9 All amounts payable under this section shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as,
10 and for all purposes shall be deemed to be, the regular compensation of such environmental 11 police officer.

12 (b) Where the injury causing the incapacity of an environmental police officer for which the 13 officer is granted a leave without loss of pay and is paid compensation in accordance with the 14 provisions of this section, was caused under circumstances creating a legal liability in some

15 person to pay damages in respect thereof, either the person so injured or the office paying such 16 compensation may proceed to enforce the liability of such person in any court of competent 17 jurisdiction. The sum recovered shall be for the benefit of the office paying such compensation, 18 unless the sum is greater than the compensation paid to the person so injured, in which event the 19 excess shall be retained by or paid to the person so injured. For the purposes of this section, the 20 term "excess" shall mean the amount by which the total sum received in payment for the injury, 21 exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds the amount paid under this section as compensation to 22 the person so injured. The party bringing the action shall be entitled to any costs recovered by 23 him. Any interest received in such action shall be apportioned between the office and the person 24 so injured in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively, inclusive of interest and 25 costs. The expense of any attorney's fees shall be divided between the office and the person so 26 injured in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively.

27 (c) Whoever intentionally or negligently injures an environmental police officer for which the 28 officer is granted a leave without loss of pay and is paid compensation in accordance with the 29 provisions of this section shall be liable in tort to the office paying such compensation for all 30 costs incurred by such office in replacing such injured environmental police officer which are in 31 excess of the amount of compensation so paid.
